MERIDIAN PROFESSIONAL BIO

EXECUTIVE BIO

Dr. Maurice Edmondson, EdD, is the Founder and Principal Consultant of Meridian Consulting Group, an advisory firm focused on strengthening leadership, aligning organizational systems, and improving execution. He brings more than three decades of leadership experience across military, federal, operational, acquisition, and consulting environments, including management of complex portfolios exceeding $215 million.

Dr. Edmondson specializes in organizational diagnosis, strategy execution, leadership alignment, operational performance, and transformation. His approach is grounded in a simple premise: organizations perform best when strategy, structure, systems, and execution reinforce one another.

Through Meridian, he advises leaders on organizational performance, leadership development, operational improvement, healthcare leadership, and AI and digital transformation. He also develops executive workshops, team-building and leadership retreats, employee development programs, and speaking engagements designed to turn strategic priorities into practical action.

His academic background includes a Doctor of Education (EdD) in Organizational Leadership, a Master of Science in Leadership & Management, a Master of Science in Acquisition & Procurement Management, a Bachelor of Applied Science in Business Administration & Business Management, and an associate degree in Contract Administration.

Dr. Edmondson is known for translating complex organizational problems into clear decisions, practical operating systems, and measurable execution. His consulting philosophy is summarized by Meridian's guiding line: Strengthening Leadership. Aligning Systems. Driving Performance.
